

Project introduction/overview

- What are the main goals of the project, tool, or platform? What does it seek to accomplish?
 - To make digital scholarship immersive, simple, and creative
 - Allow authors to publish their work onto digital media
 - Encourages collaborative authoring on the digital platform
 - Bridging the author and reader connection through one platform
- What argument does the project make?
 - Scalar strives to make creating a digital scholarship simple and creative for authors/users
 - To give authors the advantage of displaying their work the way they want to
 - Being a platform for any writing, no matter the length or content while being able to link any media to further the interactivity of the piece
- What are its main features? Give us an overview of the available features and show us how to use the tool.
 - Scalar gives users tools to structure their essays. long-length writings can be presented in ways that take advantage of the unique capabilities of digital writing, including nested, recursive, and non-linear formats.
 - Scalar allows embedding from any type of media
 - Scalar has reader commentary
 - Scalar contains a diverse set of page templates that allow users to create interactive digital books
 - Its open source element allow users with coding capabilities to mend the interactive work to their liking
 - Allows multiple authors to work on the digital writing